John Carnes does estate administration and writes wills, powers of attorney, etcetera. This has started to become a bigger part of his practice - especially in the past year. He welcomes the opportunity to provide service to the Quaker community and practice the Quaker values of providing a quality product at a reasonable price. John attended Germantown Friends School and Westtown. When he was at the University of Wisconsin he attended meeting there and also attended meeting at both Santa Fe New Mexico and Annapolis. When in Germantown he has attended Coulter Street Meeting.
