Some background to the queries (below) from PYM Sprint on Covenant Giving

Covenant Queries

1. What is your understanding of the role and purpose of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting and its representation of our monthly/quarterly meeting, and wider Quaker community?
2. How does our covenant relationship contribute to the life of the monthly/quarterly meeting and deepen our connections across our yearly meeting?
3. What are the challenges to and opportunities for enhancing the covenant giving of our meeting, and what are we doing to address these?
4. How are we contributing to the covenant relationship with the yearly meeting? Examples include attending programs, volunteering, sharing news, coming together at sessions, financial support, etc.

Minute of Appreciation for Hockessin Friends Meeting - for editing and approval

WQM minutes its gratitude and appreciation to all members and attenders of Hockessin Friends meeting who helped host the April 2026 Quarterly meeting. QM visitors enjoyed Hockessin's pre-worship fellowship coffee. The all-ages worship included a dynamic reading of Dr. Seuss' Horton Hears a Who. The children then had a program about finding God in nature while the adults participated in communal committee discussions. WQM visitors found the small group discussions very valuable, enjoyable, helpful and enlightening. The discussions produced a lot of information sharing and cooperation. The extensive and delicious luncheon buffet, including a build-your-own taco bar with visiting meeting members contributing side dishes and desserts, ensured that everyone was satisfied and ready to take on the business of the Quarter after the meal.

Minute of Appreciation for Margaret Walton - for edi

Western Quarter minutes their appreciation for the service of Margaret Walton. Margaret formally began her clerkship of Western Quarter in the spring of 2023. She was serving on the nominating committee for the quarter, and heard Support Committee's assessment that she had the skills and character needed by the quarter in that moment. Margaret opened our meetings with an invitation to join with Spirit as we engaged in work for and in support of Western Quarter Meetings and Friends. For three years, she served as clerk while frequently having a hand in the children's programming as well. Her personal outreach and invitations to Friends to come to quarterly meeting, brought many to our gatherings. Thank thee, Friend Margaret, for this care of the quarter.
