Newark Monthly Meeting Presents Author and Activist

Carol Metzker

Author of Facing the Monster: How One Person Can Fight Child Slavery

Carol Metzker is a writer and frequent speaker. Writing assignments about large companies and information technology led her to India, where in 2004 she met an 11-year-old girl rescued from slavery. The encounter led to her journey into the dark world of human trafficking and slavery locally and overseas. It sparked her quest and subsequent projects to aid survivors of modern-day slavery.
